Taxicabs in Washington, DC determine fares by a zone system. Prices range from $6.50 for travel within a single zone to $18.90 for an eight-zone ride. You'll also pay an extra $1.50 for each additional person. A rush-hour surcharge of $1 is in effect from 7:00 to 9:30 a.m., and 4:00 to 6:30 p.m. on weekdays. For more than one grocery bag or suitcase per person, there is a $0.50/piece addition, and larger objects will cost $2.00. Cabs can double the fare during snow emergencies. Because there is a $1.00 charge for radio-dispatched cabs, you might want to try hailing a taxi in a well-traveled location before calling.
